DEDICATION OF ANNUAL

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen hundred Fifty Three, wish to dedicate this Annual to our parents who have helped and guided us through the years. They, guided by love, have given us our basic education and understanding. We want them to know that we really appreciate them and the things they have done for us, although at times we don't show it. With this edition of the Echoes goes our love and gratitude to our dear parents.

Miss Deemer

Mr. Branstetter

Mrs. Sarka

APPRECIATION

We also would like to extend our sincere appreciation to Miss Deemer, Mrs. Sarka, and Mr. Branstetter who have been our chief advisers during our senior year. They have guided us in the good things and tried to help us grow in every way. Again we say -- Thank you for everything.

The Capitol

Executive Department

This year book will become a source of pleasure to you in the years to come. You will look back to these years with your classmates and learn that they were pleasant. You are likely to find the attitudes that you hold as an adult will be much the same as those you had during your school days. By the time you read this your high school days will be over, but you can reflect upon it as a guide for the future. Be pleasant, co-operative, constructive, and active in some worthwhile undertaking if the yearbook of your adult life is to prove to be pleasant to look back upon.

It is better to have tried and failed,
Than never to have tried at all.
But it is hard on the disposition,
Yet successfully lived through it
Matures a person's character in a manner that continued success cannot do.
The growing up process is difficult, but worthwhile.

LESTER R. HARTER

Lester Harter

Hugh, our star drummer and tenor, has been quite popular as president of the Senior Class, the Band, and the F.F.A. He has participated in the winning Parliamentary Procedure teams.

"Rudolph", the fellow with the dreamy bass voice, surely makes a clarinet hum. F.F.A., Junior Play, Peace Contest, and the Honor Banquet claimed his interests, but when you want candy, look for him!

Janice, our Echoes' and Journal News' editor, was president of the G.A.A. She was in the Junior Play and on the Honor Society, too. Long will our Homecoming Queen be remembered!

JANICE ANN CORE

RICHARD A. ZIMMERMAN

"Arch", our bass singer and star trumpet player, has been an ardent Parliamentary Team member and waiter. But where would the F.F.A. and Reception Committee have been without him?

Marie Greber

MARIE DRUSILLA GREBER

REX S. DERSHEM

Our gal Marie, the president of the Student Council, was an active G.A.A. member and used her pretty soprano voice to sing in the chorus.

Rex, artist for the Echoes, participated in intramurals. He was a member of the Reception Committee, the "Romeo" in the Junior Play, and a senior member of the Student Council.

Rex Dershem

Janet, our composer of Senior articles, was the young bride in the Junior Play. She has spent four years in F.H.A. and G.A.A., and she has been a faithful librarian.

Mary, our short-stuff of the class, has been in G.A.A. the past four years. "Shorty" was business manager of the Echoes' staff and participated in the Prince of Peace Contest.

JANET M. MCDORMAN

MARY JANE NICHOLS

WALTER E. BRANSTETTER

JOE L. MACK

"Walt", our ice cream maker, stars as a bass singer and clarinet player. He was assistant-editor of the Echoes, a Prince of Peace Contestant, and a lover of basketball.

*Best of
Joe Mack*

Joe, a Kossuth Lad, was a handy man with a basketball, an ardent worker of the Annual Staff and F.F.A., and a dashing young lawyer in the Junior Play.

Walt Branstetter

"Jude", a Prince of Peace winner, was a business manager for the Echoes, capable office assistant, F.H.A. president, active member of G.A.A., and a "grouch" in the Junior Play.

Dixie, favorite tympani drummer, was a G.A.A. and F.H.A. member, one of the Business Managers, on the Honor Banquet her junior year, and took part in the Prince of Peace Contest.

JUDITH ANN HARBISON

DIXIE HARTER

NELLIE ROSE PAGLOW

Nellie Paglow

LEWIS E. GOSSARD

Lewis Gossard

Nellie, as homecoming attendant, was favored. She worked hard in G.A.A., as Journal News Staff typist, and as a Prince of Peace Contestant. As an Usher and Program Committee girl she was needed.

"Lewie", our black, wavy-haired classmate with a personality plus trait, seems to be of the quiet type. He's really a fine person at heart.

Bill, the Romeo of the Senior Class, is interested in sports, was shop reporter for Journal News Staff, and could be seen snapping pictures for the Annual. He meets no stranger.

As Majorette she did step; on the Echoes Staff was a typist; F.H.A., G.A.A. and the Peace Contest have been her interests; but if you need shoes, call on Carolyn!

ROXANNA LONG

C. CRAIG BOYER

Roxanna's fine personality showed in her Band, Chorus, G.A.A., and F.H.A. work. She was an Honor Society member, placed as one of the first in the Prince of Peace Contest, and holds her ground in discussions.

"Sug" was a member of the State Judging Team and was a State Farmer, too. He has been an all-around F.F.A. and Band member. We all like "Sug", and so would you.

Jack, our history kid, was representative to the Student Council two years, class president, waiter, and member of a Reception Committee. The football and basketball teams would have missed him greatly.

"Dink" served on a Reception Committee making flowers. She was a waitress, servant of G.A.A., office assistant, and a Prince of Peace participant. Squeaking away in orchestra was her hobby.

LAURETTA JEAN FRONK

ROGER THOMPSON

Roger Thompson

An active, responsive girl, Jean's interests varied from intramurals, G.A.A., Prince of Peace, D.A.R. Test, to secretary of F.H.A. On a Reception Committee she slaved her time away!

F.F.A. has been one of Roger's interests the year round. Baseball was one that came in the spring. He is always near by and wears a smile all the while.

Angelo Mauri

ANGELO J. MAURI

ELSIE KNAPP

"Ace", one of the Senior Class jokers, was a loyal baseball follower. Football has also claimed his interest and what could the student council have done without him?

"Stretch" not only could play a French horn, but oh what an athlete she was. In F.H.A., Chorus, Prince of Peace, and on the Echoes Staff she could not be beat!

JEANETTE L. STRAYER

Jean Strayer

JOHN ALLEN WILGES

John Wilges

Jean, the other half and a popular Majorette for four years, had voice for the Prince of Peace Contest, Athletic ability for G.A.A., and merit for the Honor Society.

John is very friendly and gay, and smiles for everyone along the way. As manager he supported the team and is always on the beam.

Forrest, the teaser of our class, was a very active worker in F.F.A. being a member of the Parliamentary Procedure and State Judging Teams. He participated in track and chorus.

An active member of G.A.A. and F.H.A., "Mac" served on a Reception Committee, was a Prince of Peace Contest winner, a Majorette, and Echoes Staff worker.

FORREST EUGENE KING

MAXINE KAY SPRAGUE

DONALD G. FAIRBURN

On the Echoes Staff "Lucy" worked and laughed. She was a librarian and on the Journal News Staff. She liked to sing and helped to pick announcements for the Senior gang.

*Donald Fairburn
"moose"*

If your car is below "par" and you're going far, take it to Don at Marathon. There he will greet you with smiles that will last for many a mile.

Basketball and track are Jim's main interests. As football manager he helped the team. The Varsity "S" is the club to which he belonged.

Jim Wilges

JAMES WILGES

JANET LOUELLA STRAYER

Janet Strayer

"Jane," one of the twins, was four years a Major-ette. She was a good sport, active in G.A.A., and was a Junior High Cheerleader in her freshman year.

ELOISE KAY KOHLI

WILLIAM L. MORRIS

"Kootsie" took pictures for the Echoes Staff. In G.A.A. and F.H.A. she had many a laugh. She was a librarian and a member of our High School Chorus.

*Bill

"Willie," a farmer he's sure to be, has supported F.F.A. and Parliamentary Procedure Teams. His interest has been in sports, and his vocal ability burst forth in Speech and Chorus.

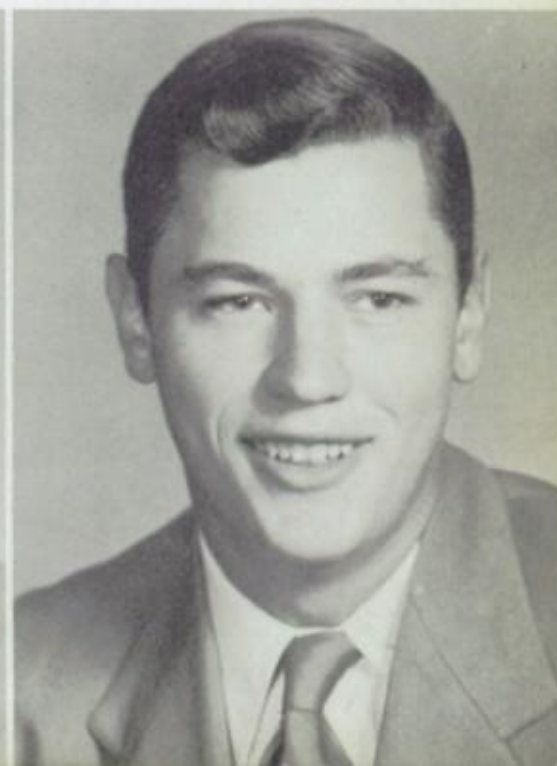

Lois McDonel

LOIS JEAN MCDONEL

ROGER WHETSTONE

Lois helped in a big way when she was the mother in the Junior play. She was also main soprano singer of the Chorus. In G.A.A. and intramurals she carried a load.

"Doc," our star pig-raiser, has been active in F. F. A. and was 'Papa' in the Junior Play. He also served on the winning Parliamentary Procedure Team.

GILBERT SEIBERT, JR.

Gilbert Seibert Jr. 531

EARL LA VERN MILLER

E. L. V. Miller

In football he can't be beat, for "Gillie" in our class does rate. At mechanics he is one of the best, as he works on his Ford V-8.

La Vern, class chicken and rabbit raiser, has been active in F.F.A., on Parlimentary and State Judging Teams, and contested in the Prince of Peace Contest. Oh, can he play ping pong!

"Pat" sang in chorus, played in G.A.A., and cooked and sewed in F.H.A. She worked hard as librarian, as a member of Echoes Staff, and on the Senior Announcement Committee.

In the Junior Play "Buzz" was great, and as a trumpet player he does rate. In F.F.A. and as vice-president of the Junior Class he made things hum.

PATRICIA JOYCE GEHR

PAUL METZGER

Jim Wilson

BENJAMIN FRANK OEHLHOF

Football was "Jim's" interest in the fall; in the winter came the intramural activities in which he played. He was a member of F.F.A. and the Parlimentary Procedure Team.

"Benny" has been a loyal F.F.A. member for four long years where he studied poultry, farming, and steers. He has a lot of fun and has a smile for everyone.

"Dinger" is the smallest and the quietest boy of the class. He never utters any complaints and always carries an air of happiness in his smile.

CHARLES LEE

Jim Mc McDonough
JAMES McDONOUGH

"Jim", who always has a smile, was secretary of F.F.A. and a member of the Parliamentary Team. He participated in intramural games, and at eating fudge he can't be beat.

HOMER R. SHEPLER

EVELYN MARIE MORRIS

He's shy and quiet; he's blond and handsome. And he really loves horses. That's our boy, "Bob".

"Little Moose", as Delphie in the Junior Play, stole the show. G.A.A., Prince of Peace, and Chorus were her delights. But how would the Latin class have survived without her?

"Goose" was an important man on the football and track teams and played intramurals, too. He was a member of the Varsity "S" club.

Todd was class president in 49 and 50 and a drummer in Marching and Concert Band. Volleyball and basketball were his intramural sports. His ambition was to be a track star.

RICHARD W. STOSE

*Best Wishes
Sharlene*

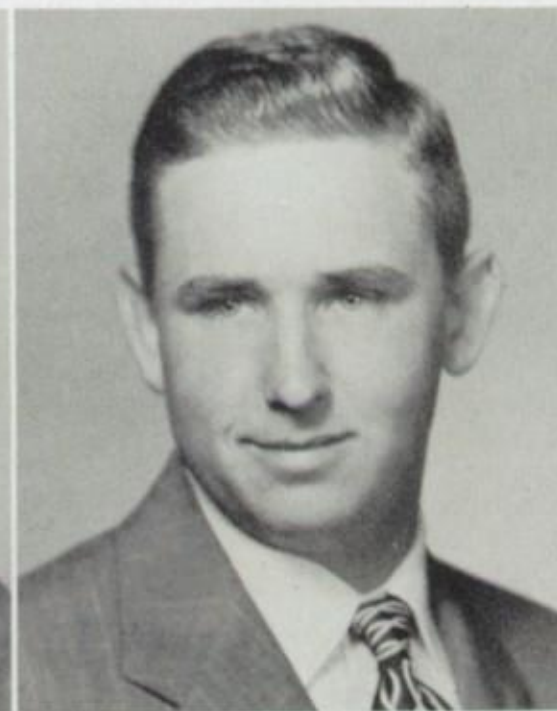

In Baseball, and Football he was an all-round athlete. A mischievous boy he portrayed in the Junior Play. E. C. loves him, too, for who else would run errands if it weren't for Joe?

"Dick," our young and friendly actor, has participated in shop work and has been on the Motto and Reception Committees.

Outstanding in all types of sports, she participated in intramural activities and G.A.A. Finding books in the library was her decision; to serve on a Commencement Committee, her ambition.

DORLA SHARLENE GRAHAM

PAUL WEIN

Paul, who plays the role of the quiet man, was an ardent F.F.A. lad. He can be seen on the job at the Kossuth Tile Mill where he is steadily employed.

BERNARD LEIS

JOE E. WINEGARDNER

"Rooster," has been a loyal F.F.A. member for four years. He also has taken interest in chorus and football. The Parliamentary Procedure Team could never have won without him.

Joe Winegardner

"General," one of Eileen's helpers, took a very active part in Band and F.F.A. He has assisted the Journal News Staff and was a runner up in the Prince of Peace Contest.

This was the second Homecoming ceremony in the history of Spencer-ville High School.

It took place on Friday evening, October 10, during and after the Columbus Grove -- Spencerville football game. The theme was Harvest Moon.

September 3rd found fifty-eight students returning to school for another year of work activities. As this was next to the last year of their attending school, they were well represented in the sports field, band, chorus, and orchestra.

The first real highlight of the year was the Junior Class play, "Glamour Boy", which was presented November 14, before a full house.

They all enjoyed their class trip in May very much.

In May, the annual Junior-Senior Prom took top honors for the social event of the year.

As they near the end of the school year, they wish to thank their sponsors for helping them through their Junior year.

SOPHOMORES

There were two outstanding events during the Sophomore year. The first was the class trip to Hocking Valley. The students came home with memories of a very fine day spent exploring Southern Ohio.

The second big event was, of course, the magazine sale which is an annual affair. This year $1,040.52 was taken in but the goal to win over previous years was not met.

The class wished to express their sincere thanks to the sponsors, Miss Hartle and Mr. Zaborniak. Without their help the year could not have been as large a success as it was.

An ambitious group, 63 exactly, walked into high school first of the year heading toward the Freshman Class. They were last year's eighth graders and six boys and four girls from Jennings. They had an eventful class trip to Cincinnati, November 1. The Freshman Class wishes to express appreciation to its sponsor, Miss Shrider and Mr. McDorman.

This year fifty-two pupils enrolled in the Spencerville Eighth Grade.
 During the year two new students came to join them. They were Susan Stemen and Jerry Heinz.
 They had a hayride and everyone who went enjoyed it very much.
 The eighth grade wants to express their sincere thanks for the good guidance of their sponsors, Mrs. Clark and Mr. Crile.

Our first year in high school was an exciting one; and with the help of our sponsors, Mrs. Burdette and Mr. Collins, we have finished the year successfully. We had our class trip to St. Marys in the spring. A class party was held on October 28, 1952, at the high school where all had a lot of fun.

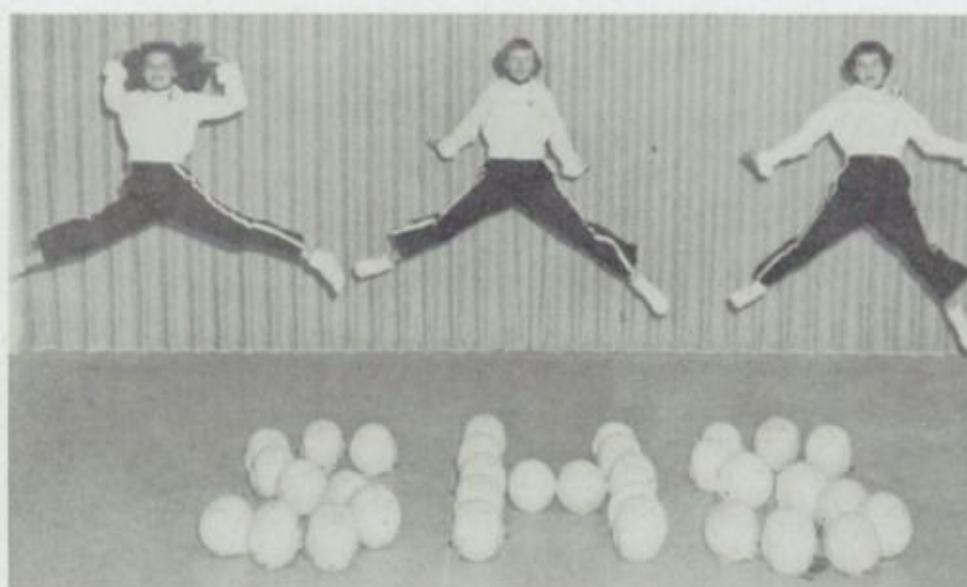

Congratulations and Best Wishes to the Senior Class of 1953. This page is sponsored by DONALD S. WHITE STUDIO Van Wert, Ohio.

The football season of 1952, although not as successful as the preceeding year, proved to be both exciting and educational. From the standpoint of wins and losses something has been gained from this year's experiences. Mr. Crile, the varsity coach, stressed training rules. There were letters given to seventeen members of the twenty-two member squad.

BASEBALL, 1952

The Spencerville Bearcats completed a very successful season by winning 5 out of 8 games. The squad was dominated by the pitching of Mick Miller and Don Wisher and the hitting of Junior Richardson. For the second year in a row the squad was eliminated from the county tourney by Gomer, the eventual winner. Spencerville did receive the honor of being runner-up in the County League.

This year was probably the most successful year in the F.F.A. work. The chapter was recognized by the State Association. Gene Balthaser, who was elected to the State camp board, received the Star State Farmer Degree of which there is only one each year.

Other awards received were Gold in the Chapter and Safety Contests, and three State Farmers, who were Dow Wagner, Bob Harter, and Craig Boyer. Dow had the best secretary's book in the District. In the county Gold was won in the Parliamentary Procedure Contest and in the Public Speaking Contest.

Twenty boys exhibited 101 projects in the Auglaize, Allen, and State Fairs. The total amount of money came to $337; a little more than $3 per exhibit.

Four boys and Mr. Hummel attended the National F.F.A. Convention at Kansas City. The senior agriculture boys went to the International Livestock Show in Chicago also.

The entire Chapter conducted a scrap drive, pest hunt, and seed sale. The annual Parent and Son Banquet was an outstanding achievement.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Moseley the Future Homemakers of America held their monthly meetings on the first Monday of each month.

One of the main projects of the year was the Harvest Hop. This dance, which was held in November, was a huge success. Another highlight of the year was the annual Mother and Daughter Banquet in the spring.

The F. H. A. wishes to thank Mrs. Moseley for her guidance throughout the year.

G. A. A.

This year the G.A.A. was proud to be the largest organization in school. They could boast of approximately seventy-five members.

Every month the girls tried to have one night when they could enjoy either a supper, party, dance, or play night, besides their regular meeting.

They would like to thank and commend Mrs. Burdette, their sponsor. She has worked very hard to make this year as successful as it has been.

JOURNAL NEWS STAFF

Seated: J. Harbison, S. Wood, M. Wilkins, J. Core, Mrs. Clark, J. McDorman, N. Paglow. Standing: G. Bowen, M. Shank, M. Sprague, B. Swickrath, B. Knapp, B. Hamilton, L. Harter, R. Long, J. Balthaser, S. S. Rohrbach, J. Winegardner.

Through the untiring and enthusiastic response of the many reporters, the school was well represented in the Black and White Banner of the Local Journal News.

Many problems were met during the year but the welcome help of Mr. Focht, Mrs. Clark, and Mr. Branstetter soon enabled everything to run smoothly.

Willing reporters are greatly appreciated by their Editor-in-chief.

Spencerville was the fortunate host of the Honor Banquet in 1952. After a well prepared dinner an enjoyable evening began with a varied program presented by the students of the various schools. A Lamp of knowledge, the place marker, symbolized the reason for the occasion. A most interesting message by Professor Hilliard D. Camp was given on the subject, Education for What.

STUDENT COUNCIL

President - Marie Greber
Secretary - Anne Bowers

Out of the four or five meetings by the Student Council during the year several items came to their attention.

The first important matter was that of the Homecoming events over which the Council is the overseer. Choice of Cheerleaders and a study of hall behavior were among the year's activities.

All in all those few meetings had their importance and accomplishments as to the furtherance of the student body.

The library, under the direction of Miss Fritz, operated this year by the help of fourteen girls. Their jobs ranged from keeping the magazines orderly to the checking in and out of books belonging to the library. The girls, generally, devoted one period a day to this organization. Substitutes worked when needed.

Sincere thanks goes to Miss Fritz for helping the girls to make the library a good reference corner.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

President. Walter Branstetter
 Vice President. Lester Harter
 Secretary. George Wilson
 Librarian. Clair Zimmerman

This years Boys' Glee was larger in number than last years. They had a very busy year with participation in the Eisteddfod in April, the Festival at Ada in March, their own Concert, and the Commencement. The boys would like to thank Mr. Hinshaw for the help he has given them the past year.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

President. Roxanna Long
 Vice President. Beverly Harter
 Secretary. Sharon Binkley
 Librarian. Marie Greber

Girls' Glee practiced every Tuesday and Friday under the direction of Mr. Hinshaw. At the first of the year we must admit that a few wrong notes were hit and run over by well-meaning singers, but we're happy to say they didn't die on the way to the hospital. Dr. Hinshaw took charge, cured and corrected them so that by Eisteddfod time the girls gave forth with some pretty fine music.

The 54 girls in the organization participated in the Eisteddfod, Festival, Christmas Cantata, Concert, Commencement, Baccalaureate, and at several P. T. A. meetings.

 Librarians. Carol Goetz, Clair Zimmerman

The Mixed Chorus, proud of their accomplishments during the school term, portrayed their singing ability before the P. T. A. three times and in the "Christmas Cantata". The Festival was attended in March and the Eisteddfod in April. Their season was closed with a Spring Concert and a Graduation Program for the outgoing seniors. Hats are off to Mr. Hinshaw for his guidance.

The members of the band have been very busy this year. During football season they marched at every game. They gave several concerts; one of popular music for the school, another of semi-classical music for the public.

The band participated in the dedication of the New Elementary School and received much enjoyment from working in the new band room. Hats off to Mr. Hinshaw for his splendid guidance to our band and his challenging appeal for good work at the contest.

"In Spring the Sap"

Rockhead McGuire, Riverbottom U's hope for winning the track meet, has been confined to the dorm by the faculty for an infraction of the rules. Philip, the track manager, spirits him away in a box and hides him in the workshop of J. Oliver Twibbly, whose interest lies in making the Various Machine, which does various things. The faculty gets word of the things that are happening and begins investigating. Josephine, a professional football player and Rockhead's girl friend, comes to Riverbottom and causes panic when she proceeds to show ancient Twibbly some of the finer points of the game.

Philip, scheduled to marry Vickie that morning, stands her up in the interests of the track team; and Melville's poem, "Beautiful New," in honor of the occasion becomes wasted time.

Mrs. Mince, next-door shopkeeper, is almost out of her mind worrying about the Various Machine, which explodes and sends a flywheel spinning through the roof. She also is worried about her daughter, Violet, who wants to capitalize on the wedding postponement by capturing Philip.

If Mrs. Gertrude Hawley Stickney hadn't fallen into the Various Machine, things would have been a lot simpler; but from this point on, catastrophe climbs into the driver's seat. However, as in all good farces, the madly tangled complications are straightened out in the end. Even Dr. Matilda Guppie, president of Riverbottom U, is enthusiastic about the outcome and offers good Twibbly the use of one of the college labs.

Miss Davis and Mr. Garfield have the most trouble locating students and getting Chauncey Jay Mooney to work.

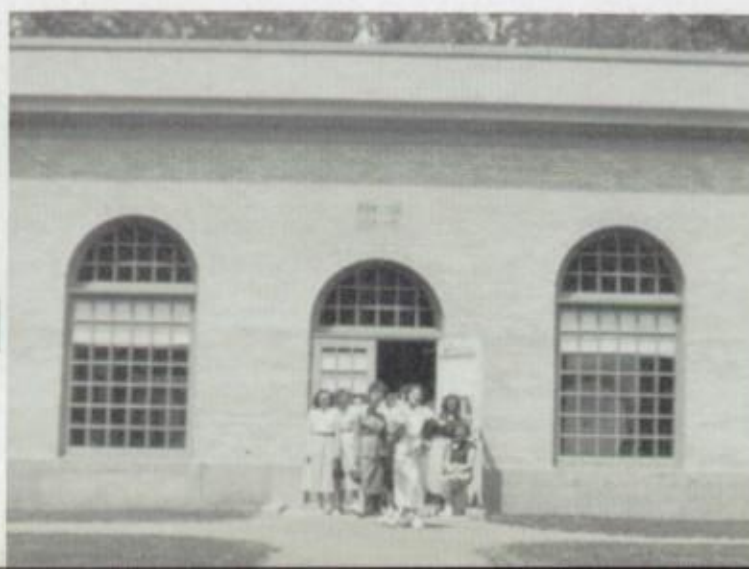

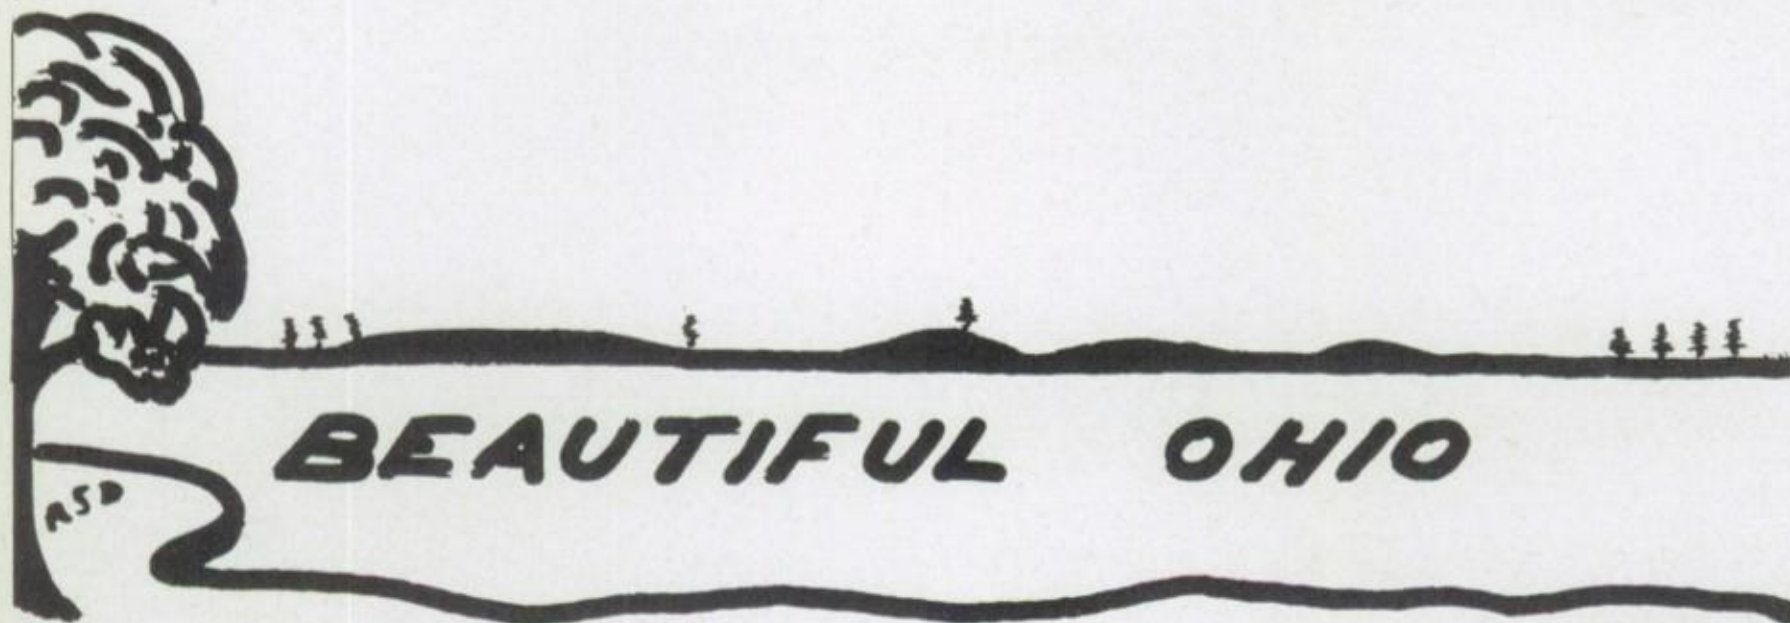

Mr. Garfield and his faculty find their jobs at stake, when J. C. Roberts finds that Oakville High School is going to get unfavorable publicity. It all comes about because of Chauncey's theme he had to write unwillingly for English.

Chauncey's dream pictures him as the soul rescuer of Georgia Belle Roberts. The students boost him on their shoulders and make him the most popular guy around school.

Miss Thorndyke saves the day, she persuades J. C. and Mr. Garfield that the theme is a masterpiece. The trouble had started when Flash Horner, the star athlete of Oakville, plays a trick on Chauncey for making him sound like a chump in his theme by sending it to a contest.

All is well that ends well. Chauncey Jay Mooney asks Georgia Belle for a date, she accepts - much to Flash's envy.

BAND BOOSTERS

President. Vienna Zimmerman
 Vice President. Pauline Stallter
 Secretary. Goldie Mc Cain
 Treasurer. Verla Adams

The Band Boosters, an active organization for five years, has been a great aid to the Band. Through them the Band has received new instruments and horns.

They procure money from bake sales, band tags, and sale of coffee, sandwiches, and pie at football games.

Orchids go to these wonderful loving parents who have with untiring effort given up their leisure time in aiding the band.

BOOSTER CLUB

The Booster organization procure funds from the selling of popcorn at football and basketball games and their annual membership drive. One of the main deeds which this organization did was to give money to help buy new band uniforms. The student body and faculty wish to express their thanks to these men.

Goldie McCain, Verla Adams, Vienna Zimmerman, Pauline Stallter.

Roland Bowers, Carl Perry, Joe Meirer.

APPRECIATION

The annual staff wishes to express its sincere thanks to each and everyone who helped to make this yearbook a success.

Especially, we want to thank our advertising patrons, without whose help we would not have had this annual.

Mrs. Sarka's room was the center of the activities of the Echoes staff.

The theme was chosen, write-ups assigned, pictures taken, and snapshots collected. Never a day went by that there wasn't someone in room 23 either cutting pictures, drawing layouts, or typing.

All these matters whether big or small helped to make this yearbook what it is.

It took hard work but was a lot of fun, too. We, the staff, hope you enjoy reading it as much as we enjoyed preparing it for you.
